Powerful and complex, with fresh fruit and spicy notes balanced by well-integrated toasted oak. Fresh fruit flavours come to the fore on the round, full-bodied palate: Red berries and cherry with spicy herbs and a touch of tannin.

San Roman 2013 [6/cs] $55.95

"Inky purple. Heady cherry, dark berry, vanilla and violet pastille qualities on the oak-accented nose. At once rich and energetic; a firm spine of acidity provides lift to sweet cassis, blueberry and vanilla flavours. Closes with youthful tannic grip and impressive persistence, leaving dark berry and licorice candy notes behind."

"Green apple and greengage on the nose turn into white peach and lemon on the palate. The mousse is frothy and lively and there is a wonderful depth to these tart fruit flavors that takes you to juicy, green pastures and white blossom. Glints of green apple flash at every corner and adorn the admirably dry finish. This echoes long and leaves the palate wonderfully clean."

Grgich Hills Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2011 [750ml/6cs] $84.95

"This is a great Napa Valley Cabernet, delivering plenty of dark fruit flavours, but more importantly, herbal and earthy elements. The interplay of these diverse elements and the way each sip brings out new flavours is a welcome contrast to the broad shouldered, super ripe, one-note style of Cabernet."

"A classic 2014, the downright sexy, hedonistic and ready to go 2014 Geyserville Proprietary Red Wine is medium to full-bodied, perfectly balanced and loaded with notions of blackberries, plums, brambly herbs, licorice and spice. It's relatively soft and already approachable, but it will nevertheless keep through 2024."
